

MEDIA ADVISORY | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHICAGO FIRE ACTOR, TENOR CURTIS BANNISTER VISITS
BALTIMORE SCHOOL FOR THE ARTS

October 3, 2018, Baltimore: Curtis Bannister – a Peabody Conservatory alumnus, acclaimed tenor, and actor on NBC’s Chicago Fire – will visit the Baltimore School for the Arts for a master class with voice students there on Friday, October 12. Bannister is in Baltimore preparing for his October 26 performance as The Celebrant in the Peabody Institute’s performance of Leonard Bernstein’s MASS, during which the Baltimore School for the Arts Chamber Choir will also perform. At the master class, he is expected to deliver a short performance, answer students’ questions about his career and singing, and offer feedback and coaching to student performers.

WHAT: Voice master class with Curtis Bannister and Baltimore School for the Arts students

WHEN: Friday, October 12, 2018, 11:53 am to 1:00 pm

WHERE: Baltimore School for the Arts
712 Cathedral Street
Baltimore, MD 21201

MEDIA CONTACT:

Tiffany Lundquist, The Peabody Institute, tlundquist@peabody.jhu.edu, 667.208.6560
Stephanie Jayakanthan, Baltimore School for the Arts, sjayakanthan@bsfa.org, 520.233.3947

###